

Insurance!!!

Prudent men believe in insurance. If your house is insured and it burns, you get the insurance—but the house is gone. If your life is insured your family gets the money—when you are DEAD.

A solid bank account is a pretty good insurance. It is at your disposal any time. You don't have to meet with misfortune in order to win. It's there every day ready for you. Why not begin now to build up the most solid insurance obtainable, an account at our bank?

NICE PURSE FOR "OUR BOYS."

Messrs. F. R. Gatti, F. S. Carty and J. V. Krebs, former members of Troop A of Pascagoula, but now placed in the reserve and working in the Dierks Blodgett Shipyard here, on learning that their old company was reported as soon moving to France, circulated a subscription list Monday and raised over $600 to be presented to the boys as pocket change by their home folks. About 125 citizens subscribed to the fund, the individual donations ranging from fifty dollars down to fifty cents.

The following letter was dispatched to the boys at Camp Beauregard: Pascagoula, Miss., August 7, 1918. Sgt. E. D. Moore, Sgt. J. V. Ros, Bugler L. White, 114th Ammunition Train, Camp Beauregard, La.

Dear Friends: "We will send you tomorrow New York Exchange for $600.00 same to be divided among the boys of old Troop A who are going over there. We want this money to go into each individual pocket, I think we have enough to give each man about ten dollars ($10.00)."

"We are also sending you a list of those who gave with the amount they gave showing, would like for all of the boys to see this list."

"We made this collection in about eight hours, we only wish it was ten times this much. It is not the amount but the feeling that goes with each amount."

"Wishing all good luck and a safe return."

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Smith left this week for their old home in Seattle, Wash. Mr. Smith has been one of the foremen in the Dierks Blodgett shipyard for some time past and both he and his wife made numerous friends during their residence here.

Major L. E. Cox returned Saturday from a short visit to Camp Beauregard, where his son, Elmer, is encamped. While there Major Cox underwent an examination for reinstatement in the army, and expects to know definitely in about ten days what the result will be.

JOSIE SEDGWICK IN "HELL'S END"

Josie Sedgwick has done it at last. She has deserted the fierce, melodramatic productions of the west wherein she fought greasers, tamed villains on horseback and handled rifles. She now makes her debut in society drama, and from all reports she is just as successful in evening gowns as she was in cow-girl apparel. She appears at the Eureka theatre on Friday night with William Desmond in "Hell's End."

In this picture, Miss Sedgwick as Mary Flynn, daughter of a millionaire manufacturer, drifts into "Hell's End," a gangster headquarters, while she is on a slumming expedition with some society people. There she meets William Desmond as Jack Donovan, a gang leader. Donovan and she had known each other in childhood. Love lights in her heart for him. Fierce gang battles follow, and Desmond rises out of his environment to the heights making himself ultimately worthy of the beautiful and accomplished society girl. In the cast supporting Mr. Desmond and Miss Sedgwick are Louis (Bull) Durham, Dorothy Hagar and Chas. Dorian.

Miss Sedgwick is a Pascagoula favorite, where she was well known personally before going into motion pictures. Her friends here follow her picture successes with great interest.

THE PARAMOUNT ISSUE.

Good Americans will endorse outright the program of the National Security League to prevent the election or re-election of any members of Congress this year who are not known to be vigorous proponents of the war or who can be lured to support any specious efforts at an inconclusive peace. The country needed such a non-political organization as the league to lead the fight against the milk-fed officeholders and office seekers who, in many parts of the country are catering to the hopes of the people that the war may be ended, even though it is not ended right. The league can come to Colorado, for instance, and build fires under two or three politicians who probably will seek re-election here and, without its motives being questioned, can expose the rank pacifism which has featured their political careers.

Just how the war will terminate will depend mostly upon the United States. Just what the United States will do depends in a great measure upon Congress. If there is a strong sentiment for premature peace in its membership the task of putting through our war program until our institutions are absolutely safe will be complicated. We are pledged now to go through with the war by force, "without stint or limit," and we must support that pledge by electing men to Congress who will "stay put" on the issue until victory is won.

For that matter, Americans should be careful about electing anybody to any office who is not clear-cut on the war. Men of no particular force in private life have much weight added to their opinions when they are clothed with the authority of office. We cannot afford to have any such backing the pacifists in the dark days of the war that are to come. We must make this a poor season for "yellow dog" office seekers of whatever grade or party or politics.—Colorado Springs Gazette.

PUBLICITY AND CRITICISM.

"Congress shall make no law... abridging the freedom of speech or of the press," so reads a clause in our Constitution.

This is a wise provision. The citizens of a democracy should at all times know of and be able to criticize the management of their affairs. Investigation and criticism in the present war have been of great benefit in hastening our preparation by pointing out errors that have been made. There is no doubt whatever that the great safeguards in the conduct of the war are almost unlimited publicity and the right of criticism.

We are told that constructive criticism is always welcome, but who is to decide what is constructive? Why not criticism without the adjective? Most citizens believe that Universal Military Training as a corrective of our unpreparedness would have been constructive, and yet it was not adopted. Who can tell, if it had been accepted when first proposed, what the result would have been on this war?

If we had had more publicity upon the production of aeroplanes, shipping and ordnance, the suggestions of thinking men would unquestionably have stimulated the rapidity with which these articles were being produced, and the delays that have occurred might have been avoided.

There are things the Government cannot make public, and these the people do not ask to know. But in the main full information concerning the progress of preparation can safely be given to the people. It is the people's war; it is a war supported by the people, financially and physically, and suggestions by them should be sought and considered.

What did YOU do to win the war?

When our brave boys come back and ask you this question, what will be your answer?

Can you say that you did

EVERYTHING.

EVERYTHING

possible for you to do?

That you saved and served and sacrificed to the utmost?

And that, knowing that the men on the battle line were defending YOUR home, YOUR family, YOUR Liberty and YOUR country, you stood behind them with word and deed?

IF NOT, WHY NOT?

Think it over.

How to Treat a Cut.

When you have a cut, a scratch, a bruise or any other kind of injury, paint it with iodine. As soon as injured, dip a toothpick with cotton rolled on the end of it in the iodine, and paint over the wound without washing. The iodine will kill all the germs in the dirt that gets into the wound, while washing only drives the germs further into the flesh. When painted with the iodine, wrap the injured part in a clean cloth for a couple of days.

Effective Hint.

A little girl was visiting her aunt and while the dinner was being prepared noticed that an apple pie was to be served. While at dinner she was ready for her dessert before the others, and becoming impatient said, addressing the cut, who happened to be near the table: "Just see Mike waiting for him's piece of pie."
